FOUR GRUWS RAPIDLY

Democratic League Reports Big Uprising Against Tammany.

DISGUST AT MURPHY RULE

Prominent Democrats Will Vote to End It—Big Meetings Planned for To-night.

Reports of canvasses in the various Assembly districts received by Samuel S. Koenig, president of the Republican County Committee, show that the sentiment in favor of the fusion ticket is growing rapidly. At the same time the leaders of the Democratic League report that their efforts on behalf of the ticket have revealed a tremendous feeling against Tammany Hall.

"You would be astonished," said one member of the league last night, "to hear the names of some of the Democrats who have expressed to me their disgust at the way in which this city and state have been ruled by Tammany Hall. Some of them frankly say that they intend to vote for the fusion ticket. Others do not say so, but the inference from their remarks is plain. For obvious reasons these men do not wish their names to be made public, but I wish that I might be able to give them to you for the great moral effect it would have."

There will be three big fusion meetings to-night, at one of which J. Hampden Dougherty will preside and ex-Mayor Seth Low will speak. Mr. Dougherty will probably tell what he knows about the way in which a Democratic Legislature "fixes" legislation, based on his experience in making some suggestions for a new charter. Robert Stephens, S. Wise, who was to have spoken at several of the meetings, will be unable to appear, but he has promised to send a letter. The three big meetings to-night, with the speakers, are: Stuyvesant Casino, No. 142 Second avenue; chairman, Charles F. Heydemann; speakers, James A. Allen, John F. Cowan, Sylvester Malone, John J. Hopper, James A. Donegan, William A. Catter, William Menkel, George J. Schneider, Maxine Blumenthal.

New Star Casino, No. 115 East 10th street; chairman, J. Hampden Dougherty; speakers, Seth Low, William A. Catter, James R. Brown, William A. Coakley, John Purroy Mitchell, James A. Allen, William A. Prendergast, John J. Hopper.

Lenox Assembly Rooms, No. 234 3rd street; chairman, Samuel S. Koenig; speakers, William A. Prendergast, John J. Hopper, Benjamin Reass, William I. Sirovich, Martin Saxe, Arthur Brisbane, Harry Kopy, Frank J. Drotler.

There will also be a meeting at the West Side Republican Club, No. 237 Broadway, at which Controller Prendergast, Robert Griener and others will speak. Other meetings will be held at the Waldorf Astoria, 23rd street and White Plains avenue, and Weaver's Casino, 163rd street and Washington avenue.

WIDOW SUES WILLETT FIRM

Demands Return of Money She Alleges She Gave Lawyers.

William Willett, Democratic candidate for the Supreme Court bench from Queens County, featured in proceedings yesterday before Justice Garrison on a motion for the return of $98.66, paid to the law firm of Willett & Frost by a client, Mary Burns.

Mr. Frost, who appeared for the firm, said his office had received the papers only a few hours before, and Justice Garrison put over the motion until to-morrow.

In her petition Mrs. Burns says that Willett and Frost were attorneys for herself and husband in a partition suit, and that her husband by the judgment was entitled to $12,322, none of which he received. He died last April. It was in litigation following this suit that the alleged overpayment of $98.66 in fees was made.

EAST SIDE CHEERS FUSION

Enthusiastic Meeting in Usually Democratic District.

Fusion candidates and fusion principles were cheered with last night's meeting in Grand Union Hall, Grand and Orchard streets, where over two thousand persons gathered in what is usually a Democratic district to express their opposition to Tammany and Tammany rule.

Controller Prendergast was the chief speaker, and his arraignment of the work of the present legislators at Albany and their attempts to pass an obnoxious and corrupt charter evoked an applause that was equalled only by the applause that followed his promise that good government and real home rule for the city would be brought about through the election of Assemblymen and other candidates who were opposed to Tammany.

He pointed out that the Republican party, during all the time that there was a Republican majority in the Legislature at Albany, never attempted to pass a charter that was opposed by the people of the city, but that it had done everything possible to insure the growth of the city and to leave it to work out its own problems after the present charter was passed.

Joseph Levinson, leader of the 8th Assembly District, presided, and among the speakers were John J. Hopper, fusion candidate for Sheriff; Walter M. Chandler and James A. Allen. Judge Rosalsky was an interested spectator at the meeting, but refused to say anything, despite the clamor of the audience that he make at least a short speech.

JOHNSON SAYS HARD THINGS

Attacks Fusion Majority in Estimate Board.

Congressman William Sulzer and Fire Commissioner Johnson were the chief speakers at a meeting of the Workingmen's Political party last night in Cooper Union. The meeting was in ratification of the Democratic county ticket.

Mr. Sulzer made a plea for the ticket, declaring that all the candidates were honest, capable and good Democrats. Commissioner Johnson devoted himself largely to assailing Controller Prendergast, Borough President McAneny and President Mitchell for failing to raise the pay of the firemen.

"The fusion majority in the Board of Estimate and Apportionment has refused to raise the firemen's salaries," said Mr. Johnson. "The Mayor has been the firemen's friend. Mr. McAneny had better learn how to pave our streets before he tries to tell us what judges to elect. The present condition of the streets is a menace to the lives of our fire fighters."

HOUSING HEAD HELD

Sandford Accused of Causing Death of Follower.

"MOSES" TELLS OF CREED

Officers of the Kingdom and the Coronet Describe Privations on Aimless Voyage.

Portland, Me., Nov. 1.—The Rev. Frank W. Sandford, leader of the Holy Ghost and U. S. Society, was held to-day for trial before the December term of the United States Court on a charge of causing the death of Charles Hughes on board the yacht Coronet by failing to provide proper and sufficient food when the yacht put to sea. The United States Commissioner, William M. Bradley, before whom the hearing was held, placed the bonds at $10,000. These were furnished by Anna T. Clement, Mrs. H. A. Perry, William Martell and William Bailey, all of Shiloh, and Sandford was released.

The leader was present at the hearing, but was not represented by counsel and did not question the several witnesses. An interesting and unexpected feature was the introduction of the Shiloh creed, which was read by the Rev. C. E. Holland, "Moses" of the Sandford flock. One portion of the creed, relating to the leadership, reads:

I believe that the Rev. Frank W. Sandford, of Shiloh, Me., tells the truth when he makes proclamation that God said unto him, "Elijah is here, testify." And I believe in him personally. I believe in and accept him as such.

Robert McKay, mate of the Kingdom before she was wrecked, testified that after the disaster her masts were cut away and the vessel was set on fire. Mr. Sandford, he said, asserted the Kingdom was a burnt offering for Africa.

McKay told of the voyage across the Atlantic to Chesapeake Bay, and up the coast to Newfoundland. At one time they fasted twenty-eight days, and only one meal a day was eaten. It consisted of cornmeal mush and bread, served in the morning. McKay said that when they were in the northern waters George Hughes, one of the brothers who died on board, was told by Sandford while sick that he had withstood the leader at some time and God was going to deal severely with him.

Dr. Charles E. Banks, of the Marine Hospital, told of conditions on the Coronet when he arrived in Portland Harbor. He testified that Hughes, as well as John Bolster, another follower of Sandford, died from starvation, complicated with scurvy.

That Sandford prayed for the deck of the Coronet to become a slaughter house should his people disobey him was one of the features of the testimony of Captain Robert Whitcomb, a former sailing master of the Shiloh yacht. He also said that Sandford failed to enter port.

"How can we make port, with these traitors on board?" was one remark made by the "modern Elijah" when several on board became disaffected.

Captain Whitcomb further asserted that Sandford said he "would sail the Coronet into hell" if he had received divine instruction to that effect.

The ninth death following the cruise took place to-day, when John Adamson, twenty, formerly of Chicago, died in the Marine Hospital. Adamson's death was due to scurvy and exhaustion. He was removed from the yacht Coronet on complaint of his mother, who alleged that she was prevented from attending him on board the vessel.

SEIZE $10,000 IN GOODS

Police Arrest Woman as Receiver of Loot.

In a flat at No. 45 James street, occupied by Caroline Sammarco, the police found last night goods valued at $10,000. The woman's arrest followed, and she was locked up on the charge of receiving stolen goods.

Acting Captain Fox, of the Oak street station, and Detectives Fishel and Conliffe were passing through Grand street when a man and two boys attracted their attention. The officers noticed that the boys were carrying several fur pieces and questioned them. They said they were going with the man, whom they called "Tony," to see if his sweetheart would pay $14 for the furs. They then added that they were selling agents for Mrs. Sammarco.

The officers thereupon decided to call on the woman. She admitted the truth of the boys' story, and said it was her business to buy and dispose of goods.

An odd looking iron folding bed was the first thing searched by the police. In the bottom they say they discovered a long drawer containing hundreds of yards of valuable laces and linens. A chest in the corner was found to be packed with silverware. According to the police the woman is known as "Lina" and has been arrested before on the same charge.

Detective Fishel said the woman offered him $200 to let her go.

OLDEST HARVARD MAN 94

The Rev. J. I. T. Coolidge, Graduated in 1838, Has Birthday.

[By Telegraph to the Tribune.] Boston, Nov. 1.—The Rev. J. I. T. Coolidge, the oldest living Harvard graduate, observed his ninety-fourth birthday in his home on Brewster street, Cambridge, to-day.

The Rev. Mr. Coolidge was born in Boston in 1817, was graduated from the Boston Latin School in 1837, and in 1841, three years after being graduated from Harvard, was ordained a Unitarian clergyman.

A few years afterward he entered the Episcopal ministry. From 1872 to 1883 he was master of St. Mark's School, Southboro, and then became pastor of St. John's Church, Hingham. He is now pastor emeritus of St. John's Church.

SEVEN DIE IN BLAZING POWDER

Women Trapped Behind Counter in Burning Factory.

Chehalis, Wash., Nov. 1.—Fire which destroyed the powder factory of the Imperial Powder Company here late to-day caused seven young women employed in the factory to lose their lives, and an eighth probably will die. Only two girls escaped, although a dozen men were unhurt. The cause of the fire is a mystery. The girls were hurled through and owing to the rapid spread of the flames could not escape from behind a counter on which they were working.

SCULPTOR BREAKS WRIST

Potter, Who Made Library Lions, Had Just Completed McClellan Statue.

[By Telegraph to the Tribune.] Greenwich, Conn., Nov. 1.—E. C. Potter, the sculptor, whose two lions guard the entrance of the New York Public Library, and whose latest commission was a statue of General McClellan for Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, will be unable to work for a month, having had a fall to-day caused by a brace giving way as he was descending a flight of stairs to his studio here. He had just completed the work. His assistants picked him up and called him to the fire is a mystery. The sculptor's right wrist was broken and his left wrist sprained.

JUDGES FOR ELECTION CASES.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court announced yesterday the assignments of Supreme Court justices for duty on Election Day to hear and determine cases. Justice J. B. Searby, Amend and Page will sit at the County Court-house, Justice Brady at No. 236 Valentine avenue, The Bronx, and Justice Gleason will be on duty at the 17th Precinct police station, at No. 120 Sheriff street.

ANOTHER CARDINAL FOR SPAIN?

Foreign Additions to Sacred College May Mean Non-Italian Pope.

Rome, Nov. 1.—It is stated that the Pope intends to create Archbishop de Almaraz of Seville a Cardinal. Thus the foreign and Italian cardinals will be almost equal in number. The probability of the election of a non-Italian Pope is increasing, and the chances in favor of America are beginning to be discussed.

LOOKING FORWARD TO 1912

Member of Democratic League Supporting Fusion Asserts That Murphy Must Be Beaten This Year.

Independent Democrats and Republicans alike expressed surprise last night when they learned that Governor Dix had found it necessary to defend his administration, as conducted by Charles F. Murphy, and beg for votes for the Democratic ticket this fall. Many gave the opinion that such a course was undignified for a Governor; all united in saying that it showed what a desperate plight the Democratic organization was in, both in this city and throughout the state.

Fellow members of the Democratic League with Governor Dix, who assisted in its organization with the view of ridding the party of such leaders as Murphy, and who have stuck to their original purpose, pointed out last night that the welfare of the Democratic party lay not in electing a Murphy local ticket and a Murphy Legislature this year, but in eliminating the Tammany boss from power by bringing his tickets to defeat.

Samuel S. Koenig, president of the Republican County Committee, said that the statement of Governor Dix was a confession of weakness on the part of the Democratic organization.

DIX'S PLEA FOR PARTY

TAKEN AS CONFESSION

Shows Tammany's Plight Is Desperate, Says Koenig, and J. H. Dougherty Agrees.

LOOKING FORWARD TO 1912

Member of Democratic League Supporting Fusion Asserts That Murphy Must Be Beaten This Year.

Independent Democrats and Republicans alike expressed surprise last night when they learned that Governor Dix had found it necessary to defend his administration, as conducted by Charles F. Murphy, and beg for votes for the Democratic ticket this fall. Many gave the opinion that such a course was undignified for a Governor; all united in saying that it showed what a desperate plight the Democratic organization was in, both in this city and throughout the state.

Fellow members of the Democratic League with Governor Dix, who assisted in its organization with the view of ridding the party of such leaders as Murphy, and who have stuck to their original purpose, pointed out last night that the welfare of the Democratic party lay not in electing a Murphy local ticket and a Murphy Legislature this year, but in eliminating the Tammany boss from power by bringing his tickets to defeat.

Samuel S. Koenig, president of the Republican County Committee, said that the statement of Governor Dix was a confession of weakness on the part of the Democratic organization.

Tammany's Plight Desperate.

"It shows," he asserted, "the desperate plight in which Tammany finds itself and confirms my statement in The Tribune this morning that we have got them licked."

J. Hampden Dougherty, a member of the campaign committee of the Democratic League, which is working for the fusion ticket, in a statement last night showed how far short of the ideals of the league the administration of the state had fallen.

"The spectacle to which the Democracy of the country has been treated when its eyes have been turned toward this state," he said, "is that of a boss-governed Democracy."

Mr. Dougherty went on to show how Tammany had turned down Edward M. Shepard for the nomination for Governor, and afterward had rejected him as a candidate for the United States Senate. After outlining what he termed the "scandalous conduct" of the Democratic Legislature, Mr. Dougherty said:

It is the duty of the Democratic League to try to end the present intolerable system, which is revolting to the intelligence and conscience of the party. The question whether boss government shall continue next year, both in this state and in other states, should be decided by the people, and not by the election of fusion candidates to the Legislature.

The Democratic League is the administration of a crushing blow to Tammany requires the defeat of its county ticket may be the only way to save the party from the ruinous political candidates nominated by the fusionists.

Will Aid in 1912, He Says.

Far from injuring Democratic fortunes next year, independence this year will improve them. Its effect will be salutary, in fact, throughout the country. The Democratic party will gain far more if Murphy is defeated than if his candidates are successful.

No one familiar with his country's history can deny that the independent vote will be essential to Democratic success next year, both in this state and in other states. Should Murphyism succeed this fall, that vote will be repelled; it will be repelled, and the result will be the ruin of the fusion movement this fall.

The party will be beaten next year if loaded down with the incubus of Murphyism. Every true friend of the party, every believer in the soundness of its splendid basic principles will by voting against Tammanyism best promote the party's ultimate success.

DIX DEFENDS DEMOCRATS

Predicts Success and Attacks Fusion Bitterly.

Albany, Nov. 1.—Predicting that the Democrats will win a decided victory at the polls next Tuesday, Governor Dix in a statement to-day appeals to Democrats to support all the Democratic nominees, as he says, "Democratic success now means continued progress, efficiency and honesty in the administration of the affairs of the State of New York." He severely condemns those Democrats who are working for the success of the fusion ticket in New York County.

His statement follows: As the head of the Democratic administration which on January 1, after sixteen years of Republican rule, took entire charge of the administrative and legislative business of the state, I feel it a duty on the eve of another election to address a word to the people of the State of New York on existing conditions and to advance some reasons why the excellent work so well begun by the representatives of the Democratic party should not be halted.

In this electoral contest our opponents are carrying on a campaign of misrepresentation that clearly shows their lack of real issues upon which to appeal to the people. The splendid record made by the Democratic House of Representatives at Washington has won the confidence of the country, while the Republican party cannot escape responsibility for the deplorable industrial and economic conditions under which the people of the United States are now suffering.

Says Unrest Is General.

Republican legislative and administrative policies have produced the very general and deep unrest and dissatisfaction in business circles which have caused great hardship among the people and generated an industrial and financial depression that has curtailed opportunities for employment and deprived the farmer, workman and business man alike of adequate and just remuneration for his energy, toil and investments.

President Taft's veto of the tariff bill proves that he is lined up with the extreme protectionists of his party and that he is opposed to any revision of the tariff in the interests of the producing and consuming classes of the country.

The record made by the Democratic Legislature in this state deserves public approval. This will be admitted and declared even by those now assailing it when they give a decision based on their judgment and not upon their passions and prejudices. Not in a generation has the Legislature of this state passed more constructive legislation in the interests of the people than the Legislature of 1911.

Legislative appropriations have been reduced one and three-quarter million dollars, thus establishing economy and efficiency in the state government; sinecures have been rooted out; no scandal of any kind has been charged, even by the bitterest assailants of the Democracy; administrative reforms have been inaugurated in every state department subject to Democratic control; the single audit of the Rochester platform has been reformed, and every promise kept and fulfilled to the letter.

In contrast with this almost unique record of achievement and of complete fidelity to promise and pledge, we have the record of the administration of the fusion party in Washington, of betrayal of the people by extravagance and misadministration and by refusal to redeem a single pledge upon which the party was intrusted with control of state and national governments.

Proud of the Administration.

The Democratic state administration has made an affirmative record of reform, economy and efficiency of which every citizen, regardless of politics, may be proud. A record that should assure for many years the continuance of Democratic state control.

It would not be in human nature for our opponents to be satisfied. A few dissident men who cannot decide the people upon the record before them.

In the fusion arrangement, the entire of citizens who without authority used the name of the Democratic party to secure support for the fusion ticket, and gave a striking exhibition of autocratic politics, which, with much vehemence, they have endeavored to impose upon the principles for which, in the past, they have contended and flatly declined to nominate sitting judges who have made excellent records upon the bench.

Accuses the Fusionists.

The truth is that the so-called "Fusion party" has no expectation of electing its county ticket in New York. The real purpose is indicated by the agreement with the Republicans to give support to the Republican Assembly nominees in an effort to betray the people under the name of fusion and restore the State Assembly to the Republican party. In the hope that the reforms so well begun by a Democratic state administration may be blocked and Democratic success in the preliminary skirmish of 1912 prevented.

I bespeak for the Democratic nominees throughout the state the united and hearty support of all members of the Democratic party and of such other citizens as place public welfare above party advantage. Democratic success now means continued progress, efficiency and honesty in the administration of the affairs of the State of New York.

I predict that the Democrats in the State of New York will this year win a decided victory in spite of the efforts of Republicans and fusionists to deceive the people.

COURT HOLDS ELECTION BOARD.

The four members of the election board of the 8th election district in the 8th Assembly District, who were accused of extorting a fee of $1 from persons desiring to register, were held for the grand jury yesterday by Magistrate Murphy, in the Tombs court, on a charge of extortion. All waived examination when arraigned for hearing, and the bail of $1,000 each in which they have been at liberty since their arrest last week was continued. The accused, Weinstein, Samuel Kemp and Jacob Goldberg.

MORE M'NAMARA EVIDENCE

Books of Bridge and Iron Workers to U. S. Grand Jury.

Indianapolis, Nov. 1.—Judge Joseph Markoy, of the Criminal Court of this county, to-day gave possession of account books of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers and other evidence in the so-called McNamara dynamiting case to the federal grand jury.

Petition for the use of evidence, seized in a raid on the offices of the association at the time of the arrest of John J. McNamara, was made by Charles W. Miller, United States District Attorney, who set out that the federal grand jury is about to investigate information that John J. and James B. McNamara and Orrie E. McManigal and others had engaged in a conspiracy to illegally transport explosives from one state to another.

Judge Markoy also granted a petition of the state's attorney of Los Angeles County, Cal., for permission to photograph the dynamite, nitroglycerine and exploding apparatus included in the evidence.

McNamara when court opened to-day had not been increased at the close of the session. Ten veniremen were selected for examination out of a new venire—the third thus far—of forty men summoned yesterday.
